sherry

this fortified wine is made from white grapes (usually palomino) grown near the town of Jerez de la Frontera in Andalusia sherry is produced in a variety of styles ranging from dry, lighter versions such as manzanilla and fino to darker more weighty versions that have been allowed to oxidise as they age in barrel such as amontillado and oloroso served in 50ml glasses

fino 3,50

dry, light, tangy & elegant; served chilled, great with fried fish like our crispy squid manzanilla 3,50

a fino-style sherry with a more delicate, salty edge; served chilled and best with our charcuterie and cheese selections amontillado 3,85

an aged fino sherry with a nutty taste; perfect with our salads, almonds or beetroot flatbread oloroso 5,95

a full bodied dry sherry, rich and intense dried fruit; great match for our meat tapas pedro ximenez 5,50

a luscious dessert wine from sun dried grapes; great with blue cheese, or poured over vanilla ice cream

“fer vermut”

“doing vermouth”.. this typical prelude to a Catalan lunch or dinner is experiencing a renaissance with vermouth bars appearing all over Spain

our original Spanish vermouths come in three styles all served classically over ice with a slice of citrus and an olive; 50ml
